

Upper NY Conference
REQUIRED WORK FOR CANDIDATES SEEKING
PROVISIONAL MEMBERSHIP AND COMMISSIONING
Order of Elder & Deacon

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Due Date: on or before January 11, 2027. It is the policy of the Board of Ordained Ministry to accept nothing submitted after 11:59 pm on January 11. No exceptions will be granted.
2. Upload the work below onto the Passage UMC website. You will be given instructions regarding how to do this by the Board of Ordained Ministry Registrar, Rev. Caroline Simmons, BOMregistrar@unyumc.org.
3. Bring one copy of the work below to your interview, for your own reference.
4. Familiarize yourself with all of Paragraph 324 of the 2020/2024 Book of Discipline and be sure that you have completed all of the requirements. It is your responsibility to verify that all paperwork has been sent in by schools, physicians, District Committees on Ministry, District Superintendents, mentors, and others.

Written Questions Guidelines

1. Answer the questions below
2. Please state the question in your paper, then give your response.
3. Begin a new page for each new question.
4. Double space writing and number your pages.
5. Answer questions within the specified page limits.
6. Professional standards of English composition and sensitivity to inclusive language are required in the presentation of all materials.
7. Use proper bibliographic citation (for example, MLA or Turabian style) for all quotations and ideas of others (full, partial, or paraphrased) that you use. Include a bibliography at the end of your questions.
8. When you upload your Discipline questions onto Passage UMC, upload them all as one document (do not upload each question separately). It will be helpful to give it a name that clearly can be tracked to you and this interview year, 2027. Therefore, please use the following file naming format: Your last name Your first initial 2027 type of file. For example: smithj2027writtenquestions.
9. Questions to ask yourself:
  - a. In the answers I've given, in what ways do I demonstrate knowledge of the biblical foundations and theological traditions of the United Methodist Church?
  - b. How and to what extent do I show the ability to articulate doctrines and issues important to each topic?
  - c. How and to what extent do I show the ability to make connections between theology and personal experience?
  - d. What sense of me and my call to ordained ministry is revealed?

- e. Have I answered the whole question?
- f. Have I proofread everything?

What is your understanding of this agreement?

Bible Study Teaching Plan

Each candidate for commissioning shall prepare a Bible study teaching plan consisting of 4–6 sessions on a book of the Bible or topic of their choice, intended for use in a local church or ministry context. The purpose of this plan is to demonstrate the candidate’s ability to interpret Scripture theologically and apply it in a way that nurtures Christian discipleship.

The teaching plan must include:

- A descriptive title and selected Scripture text(s) for each session
- A brief description (1–2 paragraphs) for each session, including:
  - o The theological theme
  - o Learning objectives
  - o Intended audience/context
- One session must be fully developed and presented in one of the following formats:
  - o A written manuscript (5–7 pages)
  - o A fully annotated lesson plan with teaching notes and discussion questions

Candidates will also include a brief reflection (1–2 pages) on how they envision this Bible study supporting the mission of the Church in their particular ministry context.

The Board will assess the Bible Study Teaching Plan using the following criteria:

- Faithfulness to Scripture and Wesleyan theology
- Clarity and accessibility of teaching
- Appropriateness for the intended audience
- Evidence of contextual awareness and practical application
- Creativity and engagement in teaching method

Upload the Bible Study and Reflection together in a single document. Name your file Your Last Name Your First Initial 2027 bible study on Passage UMC.
