Fruitfulness Project

Provisional members applying for full membership in the Upper NY Annual Conference and ordination as a Deacon or Elder in The United Methodist Church are required to participate in a fruitfulness project during their provisional period based on:

Ordination requirement - Book of Discipline 2020/2024 in paragraphs 330.4(4) for Deacon and 335(7) for Elder: “Presented a project that demonstrates fruitfulness in carrying out the church’s mission of “Making Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World.”

As a part of the full membership application in the UNYAC, those seeking ordination will start a new ministry initiative grounded in (1) assessment, (2) implementation, and (3) reflection.

Fruitfulness has a clear emphasis both in scripture and the Wesleyan tradition; it moves us out of mere institutional maintenance into adventurous, organic, missional ministries. There are no experts on what “works.” The Fruitfulness Project is an opportunity for you to risk moving into unknown territory to do ministry in a new way for a new time. Your Fruitfulness Project will enable you and your ministry partners to move beyond “technical fixes” (improvements in format, technique, or style) toward “adaptive changes” that can usher in new ways of doing ministry that connect with the community, encourage spiritual development or equip disciples with the skills to engage people, even those who do not know the Gospel.

The Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM) wants you to spend time during your provisional process on this in the following ways:

1. Discerning through prayer and careful analysis of the cultural and community context of your ministry setting what may be needed/useful
2. Creating a new project that can meet the contextual needs of the community and determining fruits that it may bear
3. Implementing the project- gathering people and resources to get started!
4. Reflecting on the fruitfulness- how has this project helped to make and grow disciples for Jesus?

Here are some suggestions to help you consider possibilities- this is not an exhaustive list:

- Launching a new worship service or developing teams to lead and revitalize an existing worship service
- Starting a new church or satellite ministry.
- Launching a major outreach project to address a social justice issue.
- Beginning a small group ministry to reach new people, new generations.
- Leading an immersion experience, mission trip.
- Developing a new curriculum that helps people think theologically about the critical issues of our day and equipping a group of leaders in that curriculum so they can lead it with others.
- Creating a new member process with other guides/mentors to new members that focus on faith formation and discovering gifts and calling.

- Designing and implementing a community focused ministry that meets a need such as free weekly dinners, or a drop in day center for elder care or before and after school care for elementary children.
- Developing a congregational care and/or prayer ministry that develops other leaders to extend the congregation's care.
- Creating faith-formation oriented retreat or workshops that has shared leadership.

Write a 2-3 page paper summary that:

1. Describes the project
2. Tells us why you chose it, who was involved in implementing it, and what the intended outcomes were
3. Shares the impact of the project on you, those you worked with and the ministry context you serve

Don't forget: Name your report Your Last Name Your first initial 2027 Fruitfulness Project on Passageumc.
